MUNICIPAL RECREATION CENTERS and PLAYGROUNDS

Municipal recreation centers and playgrounds — staffed by professional recreators — bring a rich and exciting variety of year-round indoor and outdoor recreational opportunities to neighborhoods in all parts of the city.

For Pre-School Children (3½-5 years)

Tiny Tot programs of simple games, arts and crafts, dancing, music, story telling, free play.

For Children

Games, boys' and girls' sports, tournaments, sports play days, arts and crafts, dance, music, dramatics, story telling, cooking, parties, carnivals, festivals, special theme days, crew, hiking, camping, nature crafts, excursions, boys' and girls' social clubs, hobby and other special interest groups, junior leadership training, supervised free play.

For Teens

Supervised clubs for social activities, leadership training, and community service; participation in workshops, conferences, and social activities of Northern California Youth Association; opportunities for volunteer service; team and individual sports, leagues, tournaments; picnics, dances, talent shows, dramatics, dance instruction, arts and crafts, music, hobby and special interest groups, charm and esquire classes, informal drop-in activities, workreation projects, trips, excursions.

For Adults

Social and special interest groups; senior citizen clubs; team and individual sports; parent and community improvement organizations; women's exercise classes; arts and crafts, dance, bridge, dramatics, music, hobbies, parties, picnics, barbecues, family activities.

SCHOOL PLAYGROUNDS

The recreation department provides leadership for afterschool, Saturday, and summer vacation activities at most of the city's public schools: children's activities — many of those listed above — at elementary school playgrounds; sports programs at junior and senior high school playgrounds, and evening gymnasium activities for youth and adults at most junior and all senior high schools. (A policy of cooperative use of facilities by the Oakland Recreation Department and Oakland Public Schools dates back to 1909 and the start of public recreation in Oakland.)

SOCIAL GROUPS

Senior Citizen Clubs

Ten Senior Citizen Clubs meet weekly at seven recreation centers; welcome men and women, 50 years and over. Activities, planned by members, include social, folk, and square dancing, cards, parties, dinners, community service projects, community singing, entertainments, discussions, hobbies, holiday celebrations, music, trips and excursions. Clubs sponsor annual area-wide Senior Citizen Picnic and other events.

Happy Hours Club

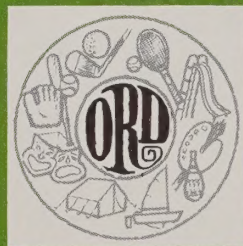

Senior citizens from private rest homes meet twice a month at Arroyo Viejo Recreation Center; enjoy a variety of activities.

La Merritt Club

Dancing and social functions for the 30 to 50 age group; second Friday and fourth Saturday of month at Lake Merritt Sailboat House.

Clubs for Young People

Social clubs for teens and young adults meet regularly at recreation centers; dances, parties, discussion groups, business meetings, service projects, trips, games, and sports. Also social club activities for children. Adult advisers.

SPORTS

Boys' and Girls' Sports

Skills development and competition for fifth and sixth graders at playgrounds; softball, touch football, basketball, kickball, netball, track, crew, four-square. Seasons climaxed by play days, tournaments, district play-offs, city-wide events. Active games for younger children.

Teen and Adult Sports

Team and individual sports for youth and adults at recreation centers, municipal and school playgrounds and gyms; softball, baseball, basketball, volleyball, touch football, tumbling, gymnastics, track and field, tennis, badminton, bowling, crew, golf. Intramural and inter-facility competition.

Young America Baseball

City-wide summer program open to all boys, 10-15 years; T-shirt and fully-uniformed leagues; skill sessions and league play under professional leadership. Sponsorship shared by service clubs, business firms, and labor unions. Over 5,000 young ballplayers participate.

Men's Softball Leagues

Extensive city-wide open program. Practice and league play evenings, weekends during spring, summer, fall seasons. Diamonds, supervisory personnel, balls, umpires, trophies provided. Team entry fee.

Basketball Leagues

City-wide men's basketball leagues at school gymnasiums. Annual summer high school league; winter junior high tournament.

Employee Sports

Softball, basketball, volleyball, badminton, tennis, bowling, swimming, sailing, table tennis, golf, exercises. Classes, leagues, tournaments.

Women's Leagues

City-wide summer softball, fall volleyball, winter basketball programs conducted jointly with women's employee leagues of Oakland Industrial Recreation Association; skill clinics and play.

Community Sponsored Leagues

Oakland Recreation Department provides diamonds; co-ordinates schedules for baseball teams and leagues sponsored by various community groups: Babe Ruth Baseball, boys, 13-15 years; American Legion Baseball, 16-18; Connie Mack Leagues, 16-18. Semi-pro teams and leagues for adults organized by Central California Baseball Managers Association. Department assists C. Y. O., Y. M. C. A., churches, and other groups to organize athletic leagues; provides facilities for teen and adult soccer.

Tennis

Thirty municipal tennis courts located throughout the city, including five championship courts at Davie Stadium. Summer instruction for boys and girls, co-sponsored by Northern California Youth Tennis Foundation. Classes for adults and youth at several centers and Davie Stadium. Annual Oakland City Tennis Championships and night tournament at Mosswood Recreation Center attract top competitors.

Golf

Two outstanding municipal facilities, Lake Chabot and Lew F. Galbraith Golf Courses. Eighteen hole standard courses at both locations; beautifully situated nine-hole Par 3 short course at Lake Chabot. Practice putting greens, driving ranges, club houses, pro shops, locker and shower facilities, equipment rentals. Instruction, tournaments, men's and women's golf clubs. Youth golf encouraged. Beginning golf classes also at several recreation centers.

Track

Summer series of all-comers meets at two locations; events conducted in junior high, senior high, and open divisions; awards.

Bowling

Oakland Industrial Invitational Bowling Tournament, second largest in nation, sponsored by Oakland Industrial Recreation Association and Oakland Recreation Department; attracts more than 300 team and 1,000 singles entries.

Horseshoes

Organized clubs at Mosswood and Arroyo Viejo Recreation Centers; clubrooms; tournament play.

Badminton

Speakers & Tours

Speakers and visual aids available to community organizations; conducted tours of recreation facilities for interested groups.

Recreation Guidance

Consultation and resource and planning materials available to organizations.

RECREATION SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS

The assumption of citizen responsibility for the continuing development of the city's public recreation services is welcomed by the Oakland Recreation Commission which grants charters to a number of recreation service groups. Charters authorize these voluntary organizations to raise funds; sponsor self-sustaining programs; plan and carry out various projects which foster good recreation — with liaison provided by department staff members. Oakland Recreation Commission's charter affiliates are:

Cultural Arts Committee

Drama Committee of the Oakland Recreation Department

Junior Theatre Association

George Hammer Scholarship Fund Committee

Oakland Civic Theatre Association

Oakland Committee on Recreation for Handicapped
Youth

Oakland Committee on Recreation for Physically
Handicapped Adults

Oakland Hobby Council

Oakland Recreation Bridge Association

Oakland Recreation Dance Association

Oakland Recreation Department Campership
Committee

Studio One Association

Studio Two Association

Young America Baseball Council

The recreation commission also cooperates and plans with many community organizations and agencies to advance overall leisure time opportunities in the city — neighborhood, school, and church groups, youth-serving agencies, service clubs, business concerns, and other government agencies.
